1. How does the picture of the hard human heart and the need of man in this passage compare with how we naturally like to think of ourselves?
2. Why does someone need to be convicted of sin before they'll truly understand the gospel of Christ? How does this compare with your usual approach to witnessing for Christ?
3. What comfort is there in God's covenant promise that "I will be your God and you will be my people"? Consider similar passages such as Ex. 6:7, Jer. 31:33, and Rev. 21:3.
4. Boys & Girls – do you still need a new heart even though you've been baptized? Why?
